week, BJP Chief Amit Shah left no doubt about who will head the government if the BJP wins in the State.

Although Dhumal was not the central leadership's favourite for the role, and Union Health Minister JP Nadda was considered an alternative, several factors worked in favour of the former.

Topping the ranks
The first, of course, is his visibility and State-wide accept-

Modi on Thursday attacked the Congress for promising "zero tolerance" on corruption when its own Chief Minister is facing allegations of graft.

The ruling party in the State has become a "laughing club", he added.

Addressing a rally ahead of the November 9 Assembly elections, Modi said it is time to rid Devbhoomi, or the land of the gods, as Himachal Pradesh is known, charges.

"I feel the Congress has become a laughing club. The Chief Minister is himself out on bail... And he is out on bail on what charges? That of corruption.

"He is facing serious allegations," Modi said.

He asked the crowd whether it could digest the fact that such a Chief Minister had released the Congress manifesto promising to combat corruption.

He was followed by Thakur Ram Lal, also of the Congress, and Dhumal, a Thakur from the BJP. Shanta Kumar was the sole Brahmin to have been elected CM twice, once in 1977-80 and then in 1990-92.

Besides the caste calculus, Dhumal also has a better hold over the BJP's organisational network and popular appeal, having been Chief Minister before. To counter Virbhadra, the BJP needs him in Himachal.

BJP launches Parivarthana Yatra in Karnataka

OUR BUREAU

Bangalore, November 2

The BJP on Friday kickstarted its poll campaign in Karnataka with the launch of a 74-day Karnataka Parivarthana Yatra in Bengaluru.

The yatra, which is being spearheaded by the party's State unit chief BS Yeddyurappa, was flagged off by the BJP president Amit Shah. It will tour all the 224 Assembly constituencies.

Chief Minister Siddaramaiah's Congress government in the State is the 'most corrupt government in the country', and Karnataka has broken 'all records' in corruption, Shah told party workers ahead of the yatra launch.

He further accused the State government of indulging in vote bank politics. It is more interested in celebrating Tipu Sultan Jayanti on November 10 than Karnataka Rajyotsava on November 1, he added. "This kind of vote bank politics will not help the development of Karnataka," he said.

Shah also sought answers on the murder of around 10 BJP-RSS workers.

Questioning Siddaramaiah's claims that he is champion of OBCs, Shah sought to know why his party did not support the Bill to provide constitutional status to create a national OBC commission in the Rajya Sabha.

PTI reports that Siddaramaiah dubbed the yatra against his government as a "yatra of remorse". He also hit out at Shah and Yeddyurappa by pointing to the Corporation of India Ltd.
