Jaya has completely recovered'

OUR BUREAU

Chennai, November 4

Tamil Nadu Chief Minister Jayalalithaa has completely recovered and "understands what is going on around her", said Pratap C Reddy, Chairman of Apollo Hospitals.

Addressing reporters on the sidelines of a book release function here – his first media interaction on the health of Jayalalithaa following her admission to Apollo Hospital on September 22 – he said, "I can say clearly, she is very satisfied. What I mean is she has completely recovered and understands what is going on around her. In every respect, she, and all the attendants, are happy [that] she has come back and is able to monitor the progress," he said.

Jayalalithaa was admitted to Apollo Hospital in late September following complaints of fever and dehydration. Responding to questions from the media, Reddy attributed the progress in her health condition to the work of "teams of doctors and the prayers of millions of people".

"She is completely in control now, and knows and demands what she wants," he said.

"All, including her, are looking forward to the day she can go home." To a question on when she can be discharged, "You know her nature. She will ask when? That will not be too long," Reddy said.

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA

Chennai, November 4

Expelled DMK leader MK Alagiri called on his ailing father and party chief M Karunandhi on Friday and said the 92-year-old leader was "fine".

"Thalaivar (leader) is fine," Alagiri said after meeting Karunanidhi at his Gopalapuram residence.

Karunanidhi had recently fallen ill due to a drug-induced allergy and doctors had advised him rest.

Alagiri, a former Madurai-based strongman of DMK and Karunanidhi's elder son, had been expelled in 2014 for alleged anti-party activities.
