

Transport Corporation of India organizes Blood Donation Drive

- Organized in association with AIIMS Blood Bank
- Camp was attended by 92 participants

Gurgaon, 17th September, 2014: Transport Corporation of India Ltd (TCIL), India's leading integrated logistics solutions provider, organized a blood donation camp in Gurgaon. The camp was organized in association with AIIMS Blood Bank to commemorate the death anniversary of its founder Late Sh. P.D. Agarwal.

Speaking on the occasion Mr. D. P. Agarwal said, "I would like to thank all the donors and volunteers who have joined us today in this noble cause. TCI believes in giving back to the community it operates in. Every year thousands of people die because they do not get blood on time. Through this initiative, we intend to replenish the blood banks that play a critical role in saving lives by making blood available to the needy".

The camp saw participation from TCI employees and people from nearby areas including auto drivers and office boys. A total of 63 units of blood were collected from the donors who satisfied all the preliminary tests. The donors were given tea, coffee and snacks afterwards.
